Data Notebooks

- Each day you will prove to me that you understand the material.
- If you ever miss a class you will be responsible for proving you know the material. Here's some examples of how to make it up.
 - » Presentation for the class
 - » 1/2 1 page write up
 - » Check it off with me verbally.

Tests

Last day of each unit we will have a "Test"

It will come straight from the learning objective and bellringer questions. May vary in how it's administered. You will be responsible to know each day's material.

Phones

When you're done with the bellringer you may get on your phone.

I will have scheduled tech breaks during class.

If I have to ask for your attention more than once, it goes to The Cell Jail.
